Congress of attorneys pass resolution that the abolition of the Autocracy would be beneficial.

Bulletin Special.

St. Petersburg, April 12th—Attorneys and barristers met in a Pan Russian congress and resolved that the removal of the autocracy regime would be beneficial to Russia, coupled with demands for a democratic constitution on the basis of universal suffrage and secret ballot. Words were not missed and open defiance of the authorities was evident. Strange to say no arrests were made.

BERLIN BANKERS

WORKED THE STOCK EXCHANGE

Rumor spread yesterday that Rojstevsky had won a battle now officially denied.

Bulletin Special.

London, April 12th—Wild rumors were current on the stock exchange yesterday afternoon to the effect that Admiral Rojstevski had met and engaged in the second division of the Japanese fleet and had gained a signal victory. Russian "fears" immediately jumped half a point but the story was officially denied before the close and it is supposed that it was started in Berlin by firms connected with the under writing of the new Russian issue which has not gone so well as had been expected. Nevertheless news from the Far Eastern waters is anxiously awaited and word comes from Hong Kong that correspondents have gathered there like vultures. All the same the official opinion at the Admiralty inclines to the belief that there will be no fighting on a general scale until the Russian fleet hazards the circumscribed waters of the Japan Sea, though it is confidentially expected that Togo will make effective use of his enormous superiority in torpedo, boat craft and light cruisers and that the operations of the next few days will provide valuable data as to the actual value of this army under service conditions. A semi-official statement has been issued at the Hague denying reports that a Dutch Island in the Andaman group has been sold to Russia, and asserting that Holland will maintain strict neutrality.

WILL HOLD CIVIC RECEPTION.

Strathcona and Edmonton will each tender receptions to the New Minister. Program for this Evening.

Hon. F. Oliver, Minister of the Interior, will be tendered a civic reception of a purely non-political character on his arrival in the city this evening. The demonstration will be under the management of the city council associated with the Board of Trade and will begin the nature of a complimentary gathering to present the new minister with the collective congratulations of his fellow citizens.

The initiative in this matter was taken by the Board at the monthly general meeting yesterday when J. B. Mercer brought in a motion recommending a celebration of this kind to the city council. The council at the meeting last evening took the matter up and outlined the following program which was adopted as a basis for the committees in charge to work on.

STRATHCONA WILL TENDER RECEPTION.

His Worship said he understood that Strathcona would tender the new minister a reception on the arrival of the train and suggested that he be met there by the Edmonton delegation after the Strathcona reception and escorted to the city.

EDMONTON PROGRAMME.

Business houses in the city will close at 4 p.m. today and the remainder of the day be observed as a public holiday.

The city council and representatives of the Board of Trade will meet Mr. Oliver in Strathcona after the demonstration there and escort him to the city, the intention being for the citizens to meet the procession at the top of Ross grade and proceed to the Windsor Hotel, from the balcony of which Mr. Oliver will address the gathering.

Mr. Oliver will then be escorted to his home.

At 8 p.m. a public meeting will be held in the rink at which addresses will be presented and congratulatory speeches made.

The demonstration will conclude with a torch light procession through the streets.

COMMITTEE.

The following committees have the preparation and reception in hand:

Committee on address from the city—Mayor MacKenzie and Ald. Boyle.

Committee on hall and decorations—Ald. Griesbach, Clark and Plourd.

Committee on Conveyances—Ald. Macleod, Fraser and Bellamy.

Programme Committee.—Mayor MacKenzie and Ald. Griesbach and Boyle.

The committee met this morning in the council chamber to arrange matters.

NO POLITICAL COMPLEXION.

The reception is designed as a means of enabling the citizens to extend congratulations to one of their number and to express the satisfaction Edmonton people feel in the distinction done the city and district. As such it will be kept free from political coloring and be made a purely civic demonstration. From the words of hearty approval heard everywhere and from men of every party and class it is certain that the reception and the mass meeting

THE AUTONOMY BILLS.

THE EDUCATIONAL CLAUSES.

In regard to the educational clauses of the Bill, I do not know whether I dare venture on a subject which has been so thoroughly threshed out by so many legal gentlemen in the House already. But at the same time the laws are not all made by the lawyers, and they are not all administered for the lawyers. It is the people at large who suffer from the laws, if they are wrong, and it is not any harm for one of the ordinary citizens of the country to attempt to understand them. Now, on this point I differ very radically from some of my friends, I am not a supporter of separate schools because I like the principle of separate schools. I do not agree with everything that was said by our honorable friend the member for Jacques Cartier (Mr. Monk) last night—said so ably as well. I am one of those who pin their faith unreservedly to a system of national schools established for the purpose of educating the people of the country, of imparting to them knowledge in secular subjects. I am one of those who believe that religion can best be taught by those whose special training is for the purpose of teaching religion; that geography can be better taught by those whose special training is for the purpose of teaching geography. If I understood the law as some of our friends understand it, I certainly would vote against the educational provisions of this Bill. But I do not understand the law that way, and I am at a loss to see how they can.

THE AGITATION AGAINST SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

We have been bombarded here for some time with petitions in regard to this educational question; we have seen staring headlines in the papers; there have been indignation meetings held in some parts of the country; there has been trouble, large and small, all around; and what has it all been about? I noticed a heading in a newspaper the other day, a great large heading—I think it has been in several issues of the paper. It read "A Free West, a Common School, Provincial Rights, Religious Equality." I hear some gentlemen laugh sarcastically. I want to say that I subscribe thoroughly to the sentiments expressed in that heading. I read further: "Toronto Vigorously Protests Against 'Throttling the West.'" Well, I would like to be understood as protesting against any attempt to throttle the West. "Meeting emphatically protests against the enactment of section 16 or any other provisions inconsistent with their constitutional freedom in this regard." And the mass meeting in Massey Hall demanded that the government, first, should abandon the clauses, second, should repeal the Act, or, third, should defer section—it must do one or other of those three things. I read in one of those petitions which have been sent in.

At the last regular meeting of the Rathfriland Preceptory, Royal Irish Knights of Ireland, the following motion was passed:

Moved Mr. Knight J. J. Mollen, seconded Mr. Knight T. Irving, that this preceptory does utterly disapprove of the school clauses in the present Autonomy Bill, and strongly urge that the new provinces do have full control in all matters pertaining to education in the said provinces.

I find in a petition which I had the honor to present:

We the undersigned electors of the electoral district of Edmonton do pray that in granting provincial autonomy to the Northwest Territories the Dominion Parliament will not by any enactment or otherwise withhold from the newly created provinces full and unrestricted freedom of action in all matters affecting the establishment, maintenance and administration of schools.

I read the following resolution of the Winnipeg Ministerial Association:

Therefore be it resolved, that the Ministerial Association of Winnipeg respectfully protests against this legislation proposed, and expresses the hope that the educational clauses referred to as objectionable may be expunged from the Bill, thus leaving the new provinces perfectly free to develop their own educational policy.

I read from a newspaper:

Orange protest.—Eastern Ontario Orange Grand Lodge pronounces on the Autonomy Bill. An invasion of provincial rights. The provinces must be absolutely free.

And in a part of this document it says:

We have strong reasons to think that this restrictive legislation has been enacted for in a province far removed from the Northwest, an organization that has never stopped during nearly the last thousand years grasping for power to curtail the rights of the people.

I read here a document which has been directed to myself. It is from the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West and says:

And so we are called upon today to enter our earnest protest against the unjustifiable action of the bishops striving to shackle the west at this time in matters of education. We desire to go on record, as citizens of this country, uncontrolled by the Roman Catholic hierarchy, who have been on record for forty years, in favor of a system of non-denominational public schools where every child shall secure a good secular education at the general expense, and where the religious beliefs of the pupils will have to be fully respected.

This right worshipful grand lodge opposes as dangerous to the peace, order and good government of the Dominion the adoption of this principle in the constitution of the proposed new provinces. We stand firmly against the endowment of denominational schools, the worst, because the most subtle form, in which church and state can be united. This is accomplished by the Autonomy Bill providing that the public money of the provinces be appropriated by the legislature in aid of education and the funds derived from the sale of public lands set apart for public school purposes shall be heretofore divided indiscriminately between the public and the separate schools.

A GRIEVANCE WHICH MAY BE REMEDIED.

There seems to be some objection on the part of some of these gentlemen who have so petitioned Parliament against separate schools. I admit that I, too, hold similar objections. And again I find in section 13 a parallel to section 15 in the Autonomy Bill and a reproduction of a similar section in the Acts admitting the other provinces. Except as otherwise provided for by this Act, all laws in force in the Northwest Territories on the first day of January, 1903, shall continue as if this Act had not been passed, subject nevertheless (except with respect to such as are enacted by or exist under Acts of Parliament of Great Britain or of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland) to be repealed, abolished or altered by the Parliament of Canada or by the legislature of the province, according to the authority of the Parliament or the legislature under this Act.

That is to say, in the Bill proposed by the Northwest government for the admission of these Territories into confederation, there are very provisions which are contained in the Autonomy Bill.

control of the Parliament of Canada. If a wrong has been done let us right that wrong and right it now, and there will be no question about separate schools in these provinces in the future.

Mr. SPROULE. Are the thousands of Reformers who signed this petition and have spoken on this question along the same lines, doing it in the interests of a political party?

Mr. ALEX. JOHNSTON. It is the man who asked them.

Mr. SPROULE. They were asked by no person except the instigator of the matter.

Mr. CONNOR. Petitions with a printed head were sent out broadcast.

Mr. OLIVER. I think it must be evident from the discussion in this House that many people have been misled as to the facts of this case.

HAULTAIN AND SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

Now the government, coming to this question, having to provide provincial organization for these territories, considering that there are separate schools there, that there have been separate schools there, that there never has been objection made to these schools until this Bill was introduced, what are they to do? What should the government do but make provision to carry on the existing conditions. What did the Northwest Territories government do when they proposed provincial autonomy two or three years ago? If the time of organization of a province is the time to do away with these separate schools; is the time to start the province out without any such incubus upon their organization, then the time to do that was when the Northwest government was applying for provincial powers and preparing their own draft bill on the subject. But I find that section 3 of this draft bill, which was prepared by the Northwest government in 1901—and whose provisions were repeated in 1903—is almost word for word section 2 of the Autonomy Bill which is before the House and as a matter of fact is a reproduction of a similar section in the Acts admitting each individual province into the Dominion. It reads:

On, from and after the said first day of January, 1903, the provisions of the British North America Act, 1867, except those parts thereof which are in terms made or by reasonable intendment may be held to be specially applicable to or to affect only one or more, but not the whole of the provinces under that Act comprising the Dominion, and except so far as the same may be varied by this Act, shall be applicable to the province of . . .

In the same way and to the same extent they apply to the several provinces of Canada, and as if the province of . . . had been one of the provinces originally united by the said Act.

And again I find in section 13 a parallel to section 15 in the Autonomy Bill and a reproduction of a similar section in the Acts admitting the other provinces. Except as otherwise provided for by this Act, all laws in force in the Northwest Territories on the first day of January, 1903, shall continue as if this Act had not been passed, subject nevertheless (except with respect to such as are enacted by or exist under Acts of Parliament of Great Britain or of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland) to be repealed, abolished or altered by the Parliament of Canada or by the legislature of the province, according to the authority of the Parliament or the legislature under this Act.

That is to say, in the Bill proposed by the Northwest government for the admission of these Territories into confederation, there are very provisions which are contained in the Autonomy Bill.

"AT THE UNION" MEANS AT THE UNION—NOT BEFORE IT.

If I understood the arguments of the leader of the opposition and the boisterous manner of some of my (Mr. Sproule) it was that if the date of the union was the date of the annexation of the territories to Canada, then the British North America Act did not apply.

I understand the leader of the opposition to say that if the date of the union means the date when these provinces were added to the union, then the restrictive sections do apply. Now, Mr. Sproule and his government in their bill, make these sections apply. As a matter of fact, I think it is absurd—I beg pardon for using the word if it is unparliamentary—to argue that the time of union means the time of the annexation of the country to Canada and not the time of the creation of the province.

Mr. SPROULE. So says Mr. Christopher Robinson.

Mr. OLIVER. I am sorry to differ from that eminent and learned gentleman. Let me read the first subsection of section 93 of the British North America Act, in which these words occur:

Nothing in any such law shall prejudicially affect any right or privilege with respect to denominational schools which any class of persons have by law in the province at the union.

This does not say that a provincial law must exist at the union. It does not make in any degree—it carefully refrains from alluding to the collective powers which may exist because of provincial legislation. It refers to the individual rights of any class of persons at the union, and defines the rights of those persons when they come into the union. That the purpose of the Act—not to define anything about what they were before they came into the union. On the face of it it has no reference whatever to whether a province was organized before or not. If there was a class of persons who had rights at the union, when they came into the union they must continue to have those rights—that is the whole intention.

THE AUTONOMY BILLS.

There is no other explanation. That is as Mr. Haultain understood it; that is as any man, I think, must understand it if he reads it with due care. That being the case, the British North America Act being the constitution of this country, I say that although I am no lover of separate schools, although I do not believe in separate schools as so many of our people do this government would certainly be doing very much less than its duty if it undertook—under all the circumstances of the case except—to deviate from the terms of the British North America Act or seek any other course than loyalty to carry out its provisions.

CLAUSE 16 A DECLARATION OF THE LAW, NOT A MAKING OF IT.

In regard to the terms of the first clause 16 and the second clause 16, I will take the liberty of saying that, for my own part, I would rather not have seen any clause 16 at all. I believe that according to the British North America Act the separate schools of the Northwest Territories would have exactly the same protection without it which they have under the provisions of the new clause 16. I know that all my friends do not agree with me in that view. I take it that clause 16 is merely a declaration on the part of Parliament of meaning and intent; that the provisions of clause 16 are declaratory and not mandatory. I say that I would prefer that there had not been any clause 16, that there should not be any declaration of the meaning and intent of those provisions of the British North America Act. I say that as a Protestant living in a country where the large majority are Protestants; and as one who does not believe in separate schools, living where the majority do not believe in separate schools, I take the view that, situated as we are, we are in a sufficiently strong position to maintain our views without any declaration as to the extent to which the British North America Act goes. But I am bound to say that there are other gentlemen who do not take that view; and I am bound to say also that they have some fair ground for the view they take. I think it is a fairly arguable question. I presume the reason they take the contrary view is this: That if the terms of the British North America Act are contravened in this particular; the remedy lies with Parliament. You come back to this Parliament for your remedy. And so they say. If Parliament in the last resort has to decide what these provisions mean, it is very much better to declare it at first and avoid any question or misunderstanding.

THE MANITOBA REMEDIAL BILL.

On second thought I am somewhat inclined to take that view myself, because, while we have a very large Protestant majority in the Dominion of Canada, and while the present House may be strongly against the idea of separate schools, that condition has not always prevailed. We recall a time not so very long ago when an occasion such as might happen in regard to the North West Territories actually did happen in regard to the province of Manitoba, and an appeal was made to Parliament, and an attempt was made to interpret the provisions of the British North America Act by Parliament. When we consider the provisions of that proposed Remedial Bill as proposed to be applied to the province of Manitoba, when we consider that such conditions might possibly arise in regard to the North West Territories, those of us who do not like the idea of separate schools, and particularly who do not like the idea of clerical control of schools, may very well say that we would rather have a declaration from this Parliament at this time as to what the British North America Act means, than trust to some future time when some other government might be in power who would be more ready to sell the rights of the people of the West for clerical support at the polls. We heard something today spoken in tones almost of horror as to a control which the advisory board had in the North West Territories, because it had two Catholics on it.

An Hon. MEMBER. What an outrage!
MR. OLIVER. Awtal to think of! That advisory board is simply an advisory board, and has no other duties than to give expert advice in regard to educational matters. But I find that when our friends opposite were undertaking to legislate for schools in Manitoba, they did not stop at that. They provided that the Lieutenant Governor in Council should appoint a separate school board of education for Manitoba, not exceeding nine, all of whom should be Roman Catholics. I find further that this board of education had these powers, and the carrying out of the provisions of this Act; to arrange for the proper examination, grading and licensing of its teachers and for the withdrawing of licenses upon sufficient cause to make and enforce regulations for the establishment and operation of departments in such of its schools as it may deem suitable for the preparation of candidates for the annual examination of teachers, and for matriculating at the University of Manitoba, and for the doing of general literary work corresponding to the standard required for these examinations, and to give special aid to such schools from the funds of its disposal not exceeding in the aggregate one-tenth of its appropriation; provided that no school shall be entitled to receive such special aid that does not comply fully with the regulations made by the board for its operation."

These are the gentlemen who are objecting, who are holding up both hand in holy horror at the idea of throttling the North West by continuing its present system of separate schools. The provisions of section 16 are intended to protect us Protestants of the North West against legislation of that kind at some future date. In regard to the distribution of public funds I find this in section 74 of the Remedial Bill:
"The right to share proportionate claims, in any grant made out of public funds for the purposes of education having been decided to be and being now one of the rights and privileges of the said Roman Catholic minority of Her Majesty's subjects in the province of Manitoba, any sum granted by the legislature of Manitoba and appropriated for the separate schools shall be placed to the credit of the board of education in accounts to be opened in the books of the treasury department and in their office. No question about that I find further in section 111 of the same bill."

GOOD AGENTS FOR THE

Oliver Typewriter

IN ALL

UNOCCUPIED TERRITORY

Over 100,000 of these machines have been sold in the U.S. within the last few years at the same price which is being charged for any other standard typewriter. This proves conclusively that the OLIVER is the very best machine made regardless of price.

As there is now in Montreal a factory devoted exclusively to the manufacture of this machine, it can be bought in Canada for the same price at which it is sold in the U.S. without adding from $25 to $30 to cover duty and charges, as do all the other standard writers.

This should be a very attractive proposition to any purchaser of writing machines.

Superfluous Hair

Removed by the New Principle

De Miracle

It is better than electricity, because it does not scar or produce a new growth. Better than X-ray, because it does not burn, scar or paralyze the tissue under the skin. Better than depilatories, because it is not poisonous; therefore, it will not cause blood poisoning, or produce eczema, which is so common with depilatories, and does not break off the hair, thereby increasing its growth.

Electrolysis, X-ray or depilatories are offered you on the bare word of the operators and manufacturers. DE MIRACLE is not. It is the only method which is endorsed by physicians, surgeons, dermatologists, medical journals and prominent magazines.

DE MIRACLE will be mailed to any address, sealed in plain wrapper for $1. Your money back without question if it fails to do all that is claimed for it.

Our booklet—the most complete treatise on Superfluous Hair ever published—containing the testimonials of numerous physicians and surgeons and those of hundreds of others—will be sent free, in plain, sealed envelope, upon request. Write for it today to DE MIRACLE CHEMICAL CO., 23

CITY COUNCIL

HELD REGULAR MEETING.

School Board Vacancy—Naming of Streets and Numbering of Houses.

The city council met last evening in regular session, present, Mayor MacKenzie and AM. MacLeod, Clark, Giesbach, Picard, Bellamy, Boyle and Fraser. After the adoption of the minutes of the previous meeting, the reading of communications was proceeded with.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The secretary of the Board of Trade wrote informing the council that the Board, recommended that the council hold a civic demonstration to welcome the Minister of the Interior on his arrival this evening. The recommendation was unanimously adopted.

An application for relief was referred to the sanitary and relief committee.

Mr. McLean informed the council that he had accepted a position as town engineer of Strathcona. The letter was filed.

The secretary of the school board wanted steps taken to fill the vacancy on the board.

Commissioner Kinnear said he had referred the matter to the city solicitor for his opinion as to the procedure.

REPORTS.

The commissioners reported, recommending that the streets be named and the buildings in the city numbered forthwith, the street names to be displayed in black letters on white boards and white metal figures used for buildings. They suggested that a distance of 10 feet be allowed to the number on business streets, and 20 feet on residence streets; that even numbers be on the west or south sides of streets and the odd numbers on the east or north sides.

After a lengthy discussion the commissioners were asked to go into the decimal system of numbering and report at the next meeting.

The commissioners reported that tenders for the sidewalk lumber had been received from the Northern Coal and Lumber Co., Ltd., Cushing Bros. Ltd., D. R. Fraser & Co., Ltd., W. H. Clark & Co., Ltd., and Alberta Lumber Co.

There was a long and not altogether pacific discussion over this phase. It was contended that the advertisement calling for tenders had not expressed the desire of the council that parties be allowed to tender for large or small quantities. It was decided to advertise again for tenders.

The accounts were passed and the council went into committee of the whole to consider the reception for this evening. After rising and reporting, Ald. Giesbach drew the attention of the aldermen to the fact that parties were in the habit of throwing paper over the brow of the hill and that hot ashes were also dumped there. This might cause a conflagration.

The mayor reported that no appointment as chief of police had been made as yet.

The meeting then adjourned.

THREE MEDALS IN SUCCESSION.

T. Daly of Clover Bar received yesterday the sterling silver medal given by the Edmonton Industrial Exhibition last year for the best exhibit of seed oats. Medals have been given by the association for the past three years, all of which Mr. Daly has captured. He has also the distinction of having won the first honors for seed oats every year since the exhibition started for years ago.

Synopsis of Regulations for Disposal of Minerals on Dominion Lands in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and the Yukon Territory

Coal—Coal lands may be purchased at $10 per acre for soft coal and $20 for anthracite. Not more than 320 acres can be acquired by one individual or company. Royalty at the rate of 10 cents per ton of 2000 pounds shall be collected on the gross output.

A free miner's certificate is granted for one or more years, not exceeding five, upon payment in advance of $7.50 per annum for an individual and from $20 to $100 per annum for a company, according to capital.

A free miner having discovered mineral in place, may locate a claim 1.40 by 1.40 feet by marking out the same with two equal posts bearing location notices, one at each end of the line of the lode or vein. The claim may be recorded within fifteen days of locating within ten miles of a mining recorder's office, one additional day allowed for every additional ten miles or fraction. The fee for recording a claim is $2.00.

At least $10 must be expended on the claim each year or paid to the mining recorder in lieu thereof, when $500 has been expended or paid the locator may, upon having a survey made, and upon complying with other requirements, purchase the land at $10 per acre.

One dredge for each fifteen miles or fraction, will be sufficient. Rental, $25 per annum for each mile of river leased.
